

Please do not make this rule. It has always been possible to use a radio or TV, whether in a computer or not, freely. There is no real reason to make this rule aside from the people in the broadcast industry who would organize our lives for us, or the government who will use it to further their 'big brother' spy arm. Thank you.